Hanover, August 26, N. S.

THIS Morning at Ten a-Clock the King, attended by my Lord Harrington, and ſeveral of the chief Officers of his Majeſty's Houſhold, went from Herrenhauſen to Celle, where his Majeſty intends this Afternoon to view his Stables, and To-morrow to hunt and ſhoot ſeveral wild Beaſts, which have, by Order, been driven into Toils near that Place for his Majeſty's Diverſion: On Thurſday and Friday will be the Review of ſeveral Regiments of Horſe and Foot, which are drawn together in that Neighbourhood, and on Saturday the King will go from thence to Gohrde, where he deſigns to ſtay till the Saturday following, the 6th of September, N. S. on which Day his Majeſty propoſes to return to Hanover. Baron Sparre, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Sweden to his Britannick Majeſty, having obtained Leave from his Maſter to go to Stockholm for a few Weeks, had an Audience of his Majeſty on Sunday laſt at Herrenhauſen, and departed from hence Yeſterday on his Way to Sweden. Count Degenfeldt, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Pruſſia, who has been here for ſome Time, having had Leave of his Pruſſian Majeſty to go to Berlin, ſet out this Morning for that Place, having firſt had an Audience of his Britannick Majeſty. Walter Titley, Eſq; the King's Reſident at the Court of the King of Denmark, having had his Majeſty's Permiſſion to wait on him here, took Leave of his Majeſty Yeſterday, and will return to his Poſt at Copenhagen To-morrow Morning. M. de Lintzing, Miniſter from the Prince of Anhalt Zerbſt, who was ſent on the Part of that Prince to compliment the King on his Arrival in his German Dominions, had laſt Week an Audience of his Majeſty.

Hague, Aug. 29. The States of the Province of Holland continue their Aſſembly, and have had ſeveral Conferences with the Admiralties upon the Expedients lately propoſed for rendring the new Tariff, or Duties of Importation and Exportation more practicable than the firſt Plan for aſcertaining and collecting them was found to be. But there are ſtill great Difficulties in this Affair, chiefly from the Oppoſition made to it by the Province of Zealand. The King of Pruſſia has notified by a Letter to the Prince of Naſſau-Orange, that he has taken on him the Title of Prince of Eaſt Friſeland, and that he expects his Highneſs will put that among his other Titles when he writes to him. The Prince of Naſſau-Orange ſets out from hence next Monday Morning in his Yacht, in order to go to the Camp which is to be formed at Oofterhout between Bolduc and Breda. The Miniſter of Denmark has notified to the States by order of his Court, the Treaty concluded lately between the Emperour,
